Notes: Jigsaw Babysitting aims to be consistent with placement fees from other reputable nanny agencies. These are either based on 3 weeks of nanny's salary or a comparable flat commission paid to the placement agency. The market standard is a £2,000 introduction fee although this can be more.

We offer a c25% discount to parents who are existing members of our babysitting service on standard nanny placement fees.

If it doesn't work out

We want our parents to be delighted with our service so in the unlikely event it doesn't work out during the probation period (the first eight weeks) we'll take every step possible to replace your nanny. If you do not wish to have a replacement, or we are unable to find a suitable one, then we offer refunds on the placement fee. Refunds are based on a sliding scale depending on time in post and designed to be significantly more generous than other agencies.
